

Positive Climate Action: Large Organisation (> 500 employees)

The buildings we occupy are significant contributors to carbon emissions as is our behaviour in those buildings, from energy efficiency and waste management, to recycling and reduction in the use of non-sustainable plastics. The Government has committed to 'zero carbon' by 2050 and the workplace and facilities management profession is in a prime position to help the UK achieve this goal, to make a lasting impact for the greater good and to show the way to others. This award showcases the positive action taking place in the industry in larger organisations.

This category is for organisations with more than 500 employees. The organisation size relates to where the project is taking place, not who is delivering it.

The IWFM Impact Awards 2021 recognise work and projects that were completed or operational over the last three years (since 1 January 2018).

Who should enter?

Entries are open to individuals, organisations, in-house teams, service providers and suppliers to the industry. Entries will not be accepted from initiatives which are at inception or early planning stages or without demonstrable results.

Organisation

Entry name (project/product/team name) as you would like the entry to be referred to in the Awards process

Number of employees in the organisation where the project has taken place

Organisations involved

To help IWFM identify conflicts of interest in the judging process please list all organisations involved in this project or initiative, including agencies, suppliers or partners.

Entry summary

Please provide a 50-word summary of your entry which (should you be named as a finalist) will be used at the Awards ceremony. Please write the summary in 3rd person and do not include any private or sensitive information as this may be available publicly.

What the judges are looking for

- Evidence of the practical implementation of environmentally friendly practices and specifically the role of workplace and facilities management in their success (including economic and/or wider societal implications)
- Evidence that the initiative raises the bar on current best practice and goes beyond “the day job”
- Initiatives which demonstrate leadership and help to unlock workplace sustainability for the organisation
- The use of technology and/or capitalising on changes to the way people work or travel, or occupy premises

Entry criteria

- Judges are looking for concise information in each of the sections when assessing the entries.
- Each question will be scored, and incomplete questions will not attract a score.
- This is your opportunity to tell the judges why your team or project should be recognised and celebrated.
- Throughout your entry, please remember to include how your initiative has demonstrated diversity and inclusion, responsible practice and strategic integration.
- Please note, each section has a word limit detailed next to the question.
- Documents, charts or photos can be referenced and included in your supporting evidence document.
